ASDA AESTHETIC UPDATE

November 2008

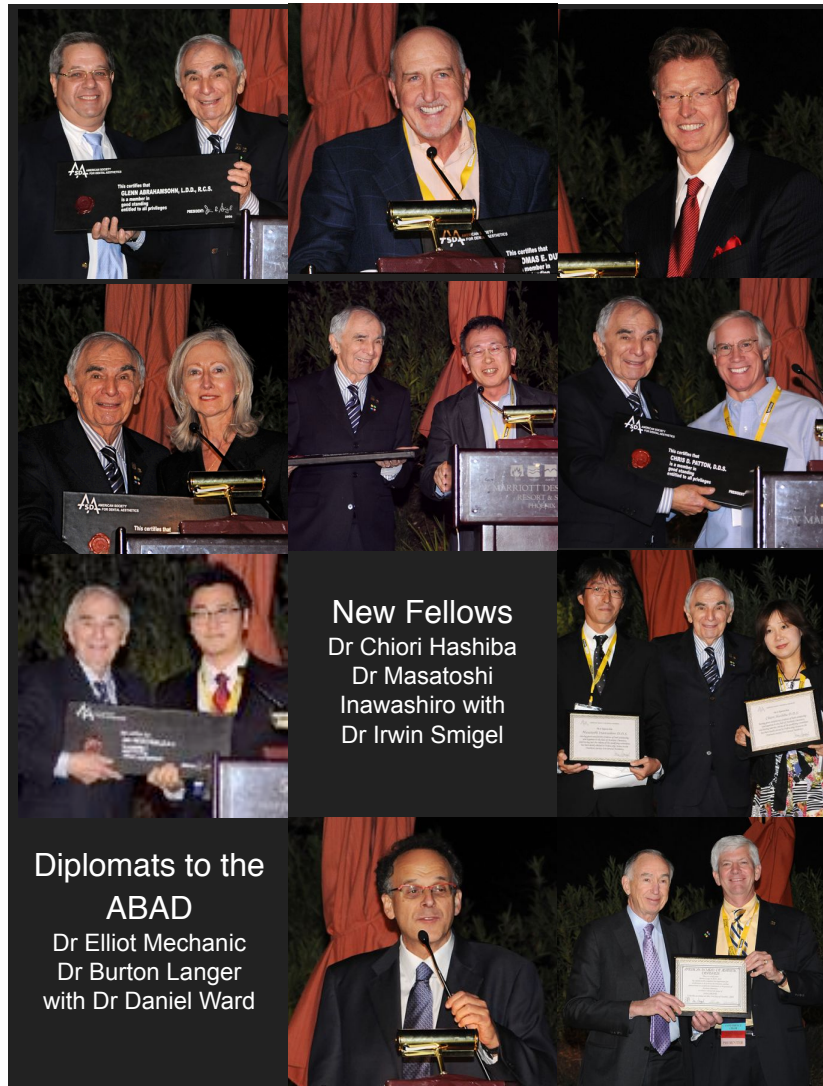

The American Society for Dental Aesthetics Phoenix Meeting Called "Best Meeting Yet!"

The 32nd Annual ASDA International Aesthetic Conference was proclaimed by attendees as "the best meeting yet." The speakers were world class, the venue outstanding, the food sensational, and the camaraderie second to none. Held at the beautiful Desert Ridge JW Marriott Resort and Spa, the event received enthusiastic praise from all who attended.

The meeting began Wednesday evening with an outdoor reception by the pool. Thursday morning started with an impressive HD DVD presentation by ASDA President, Dr Irwin Smigel, on treating extremely difficult aesthetic challenges. Dr Burton Langer, noted Periodontist, reviewed state of the art techniques. Lunch and Learn tables were held on Thursday and Saturday with the opportunity to learn useful and innovative clinical treatment applications. Hands-on workshops were held each afternoon with many opportunities to develop clinical skills. Thursday evening's festivities began with a Wine and Cheese Party and concluded with our annual Gala Dinner and Induction Ceremony.

Friday morning presentations were given by Dr Ross Nash about full-mouth dental rehabilitations and Dr Michael Miller, editor of Reality. The Fifth Annual Golf Tournament was held at the Wildfire Country Club. On Friday afternoon a master-class was given by Dr Paul Belvedere.

Saturday morning presentations were given by Dr Buddy Mopper, master composite dentist and Dr Damon Adams, editor of Dentistry Today. Lunch and Learns and Hands-On Workshops on Saturday afternoon concluded the educational portion of the program. Saturday evening the 32nd Annual Dinner Dance was held. Attendees celebrated the success of the event, enjoyed the opportunity to reconnect with colleagues and welcomed new friends.

33rd Annual ASDA International Conference
 Gold Coast Aesthetic Continuum
 October 14-17, 2009,
 Hollywood, Florida

2008 A Big Year for New Members

Seven individuals successfully submitted cases and were accepted into membership. The requirements for membership are:

- A minimum of five years in dental practice, or postgraduate training of two years in an approved program. Attendance to at least two ASDA sponsored continuing dental education seminars.
- Nomination by a member accompanied by two letters of recommendation by Society members. (In case of foreign applicants, nominations must be made by dentists in your area).
- Presentation of five (5) cases illustrating the concepts of aesthetic dentistry. The presentation may be done by a bound group of photos depicting the preoperative appearance and the step-by-step procedure leading to the aesthetic improvement, by 35mm slides properly edited and submitted in a carousel slide tray, or through PowerPoint presentation. Nominees must complete an application form affixed with a copy of their curriculum vitae.

All ASDA members have demonstrated their skills before their peers. Special thanks to Dr Michael Friedman and members of the Accreditation Committee for their fine efforts in reviewing the cases. Congratulations to our newest members.

The 33rd Annual ASDA International Conference will be convened October 14-17, 2009 at the beautiful Westin Diplomat Resort and Spa in Hollywood, Florida. Entitled "The Gold Coast Aesthetic Continuum" the conference will bring together top leaders in aesthetic dentistry. Speakers will include Dr Irwin Smigel, Dr Gerald Kugel, Dr Roger Levin, and Dr Galip Gürel.

The Westin Diplomat is a luxurious property situated on a beautiful expansive beach. It offers rich amenities and excellent service. Located 10 minutes from the Ft Lauderdale airport or easily accessible from the Miami International airport, the Westin will be a memorable experience for dentists and families alike.

Take this opportunity to share the warmth and friendliness of this meeting with your colleagues. Invite your friends. We look forward to seeing you in Florida next year.
